

Strange and bizarre occurrences are still being reported this day and age and 2005 is becoming more and more interesting by the month. Who knows what the future holds, sometimes I wonder if it is all worth it, keeping track of these bizarre events and putting them into chronological order. I just hope it makes some interesting reading at least.

Location. La Playosa, Cordoba, Argentina
Date: January 2005                      Time: night

Since early January numerous residents of this community in Cordoba have reported the presence of a bizarre creature they call a "lobizon" (wolfman). The intruder has attempted to enter local residents while at the same time emitting blood curling howls. It generally targets homes where there are no men around; it attempts to enter the home through the rear open patio area. Thankfully so far he has no been able to gain access to any of the residences where women and children have been alone there to confront him. Several women have described the entity as very tall, hairy, thin, and very agile, with blood shot eyes and wearing all black clothing. Police has failed to locate the mysterious intruder.

The witness was riding his bicycle home from his job and as he approached his residence he noticed a strange creature lying on the road just ahead of him. Aware of the rumors of bizarre creatures, he became afraid and slowed down and then stopped. He noticed that the creature stood up and jumped over a nearby fence using great agility and strength. Because of the luminosity emanated by a nearby light post he was able to make out some details on the creature. It appeared to be dark and hairy, with short thick legs, and about average height, he was not able to see any facial details. The witness quickly pedaled away from the area. The next day he visited the site and did not find any tracks.

The main witness was alone with her young children son and a 16-year old niece at home all sleeping in the same room at the eve of "Three Kings Day". She eventually drifted off to sleep and around midnight she was suddenly awakened by the screams of her 2year old son, while her niece slept soundly against the wall. At the moment she opened her eyes she saw what appeared to be a "child" standing next to the bed on her side about 1/2m away. The figure stood motionless staring at the witnesses with its arms flat on his side. He wore a golden tunic-like outfit and what appeared to be a small golden "crown" on his head. The stunned witness immediate reaction was to kick towards the figure that immediately vanished in plain sight.

Date: January 9 2005                      Time: night

A man and a woman were parked on an isolated road when the man noticed a strange shadowy figure moving nearby. His girlfriend also noticed the figure. It seemed to move around and appear in different places. At one point the figure apparently approached the vehicle and appeared outside from below one of the windows. Surprised the man stepped out of the car to investigate what was happening, suddenly he heard noises on the nearby grass and afraid he went back inside the vehicle. The noise seemed to originate from different locations at the same time, but before exiting the vehicle they had not heard any noises. He backed his vehicle away from the road and could still see the shadowy figure, that appeared to be of medium height and shapeless that moved around at very high speed. The headlights of the vehicle did not bring out any details on the figure. Since it had been a cold night the car windows had been covered in a fine mist. Once at home the two witnesses were stunned to see the images of two hands outlined in a perfect circle on the front windshield, the marks appeared to be totally dry and they could only see the fingers and half of the hand.

The witness was looking out his apartment window when he looked across the street at the railroad tracks. There he noticed a large gorilla-human-like figure walking behind a snow pile. Then it walked on to the warehouse parking lot and then crouched down as if looking for something, when it stood up it was 5 ½ ft tall, black hair all over its body and red glowing eyes. It then walked over to the side of the road, Emmett Street and crossed the road & ran back down the railroad tracks again. It had an average body, medium sized head, not pointed. He didn't see the creature's face.

Date: January 15 2005      Time: early morning

A 44-year old man reported that over the last two weeks, the last being on the above date, he had waken up in the middle of the night to notice about roof high level several gray spheres (the size of soccer balls) drifting towards him (first one, then a second, etc) and then slowly moving through the curtains and or window. The objects were of different shades of gray, each having the same symbols on them. The symbols resembled Hebrew and old Egyptian hieroglyphics. He could not remember exactly what the symbols looked like but one resembled the number 7. On the last occasion the objects were about 2 ft above his wife, having the same symbols on them, but appearing otherwise transparent and also moving towards the window. On all occasions the witness felt paralyzed but in control of his senses and on one occasion he waved at the spheres in a friendly gesture. At no point did he feel fear. After the encounters he would normally fall asleep again with no side effects.

In this area that borders Nepal, tourists returning from Nepal are talking about a possible UFO crash in that country. The rumor is also rampant in Katmandu, capital of Nepal and other Nepali cities. The crash site is in the deep Himalayan border of Nepal and China. According to sources, the crash site may be close to Mount Everest and is totally inaccessible from either side. The rumor is that the Chinese military is actively looking for the crash site. It is also rumored that the extra-terrestrials were not allowing anyone to get close to the site. Unusual activities and some tremors were felt all over the Himalayan regions from both the Indian and Nepalese side. Also UFO activities have gone up sharply in recent days in that area, possibly related to the supposed crash. It is possible that the crash was nothing more but a Chinese spacecraft. China has some secret military projects in that area. This time of year the weather is so inclement that is almost impossible to reach the area, everything is frozen over. The Nepalese military is busy fighting Maoists who are creating insurgency problems in that part of the world. According to some, it is possible that underground UFO bases in the region were damaged by the recent tremor and strange aftershocks are still being felt since the huge 9.0 Richter scale quake in Sumatra, which caused the huge Tsunami.

The anonymous witness has reported strange beams of light appearing around his ranch and finding mutilated cattle and finding strange crop formations in the fields. Others in the area have reported seeing strange objects in the sky and in their fields. The witness has been able to see several small humanoids about 3 to 4 ft tall with large heads and huge black eyes in his fields. One time he was sitting in his porch when a purplish glow appeared on one of the nearby fields, he grabbed his shotgun and went to investigate. In the field the witness was stunned to see what appeared to have been a cow mutilation in progress. He saw several short humanoids insert some type of device into the cow's mouth, which apparently made the cow numb and pain-free. The humanoids then sliced off half of the cow's face and its genitals and placed them in some kind of shiny orb-like container. They then cut off the cow's eyes and the ears and then proceeded in removing the cow's internal organs. This activity took only about 2 to 5 minutes and it was quick and very precise. A couple of days after the incident the witness saw a formation of disc-shaped objects flying over his ranch.

Robert Kinion, a civilian contractor stationed in the area was driving through a heavily wooded and hilly area and had arrived at a location about 2 miles before a local restaurant called "The Planet" when he witnessed what he described as a "hairy humanoid" coming down a fairly steep slope and then cross the road in front of the vehicle going from his right side to his left side. The creature was only about 5'6", slender with reddish colored hair, heavily matted in places. The hair around the head was longer than the rest of the body. It had heavy matting around its buttocks and also some long hair and matting around the front section as well. The sex was hard to determine as the sighting did not last long and the witness was almost in shock. He only saw a profile of the face but it was fairly flat and very dark. He saw the hands but did not get a good look at the feet as it went in front of the vehicle and then across the road and down a slope into a valley. The hands were also very dark.

She said, "Take your finger off the hole so I can see you" Then the light was there and she saw the image of a body. It was gray and blurry, somewhat small like that of a 10-year old normal size person. No features, no hair, could be seen, just a gray body like figure. She shouted, "Tell me who you are," and received no answer. Afraid the witness called maintenance and her husband. The witness is convinced that it was some type of anomalous figure or alien.

The witness had retired to bed at 2230 and woke up through the night to an orangey flashing light. She looked at the clock and saw that it was 0020A; she got up and walked outside and right above the treetops inside a cloud it looked like orange lights rotating really low and huge. She was totally stunned and could hear a droning noise like continuous crickets. She stood there for what seemed like only a few seconds in disbelief, then she ran inside for her video camera loaded the film and went back outside and aimed. By this time it had moved over the east horizon into the distance and was no more than a few inches long. She was filming between the trees and could see nothing through her viewfinder but kept filming until it disappeared. When she came back inside the clock was at 0420A. She went back to bed and awoke at 0745A but the clock had stopped at 0420A. She felt tired and dazed and ached all over and had symptoms like she had a cold which continued all day, she could think straight, was confused and bothered, she knew something had happened but didn't know what. Whilst taking a shower she noticed a small scar on her waist, which was flaky and looked like a burn scar. She reported to the investigator that whilst out with friends she became very vague and distant from the conversation and unconsciously started to draw strange symbols, her friends made a comment, "are you alright, what's wrong, you look like your off with the fairies." She went home early and went to bed, the next morning she awoke with a nose bleed in her left nostril. When she checked her video recording from the Monday night experience the tape was blank. She was very distressed.

Numerous local residents have reported to the police encountering or seeing a peculiar character, dubbed the "Crazy man of the roofs". He is said to jump from roof to roof using uncanny acrobatic ability. Witnesses describe him as over 2 meters in height, wearing all black, with cape and carrying some type of walking stick or "cane". His eyes are said to glow red when he is confronted by witnesses. Some describe him as some sort of "cat-man", who they could only see in silhouette and conceals his face, but when his face is seen his eyes are said to be glowing red. He is said to have first appeared in the suburb of Centenario near a local football stadium and then in the suburbs of El Arenal, San Lorenzo, Chalet and Santa Rosa de Lima. A resident from the El Arenal sector reported that he fired 17 times at the mysterious stranger who seemed totally immune to the bullets. It seemed to provoke or goad the witness by howling like an animal or cry like a baby, jumping from roof to roof like a cat. Many of the locals have armed themselves with clubs and knives. Most of the witnesses describe the intruder as a character out of the "Comic books", very tall, who is able to leap across streets in a single bound and climb up steep, smooth walls up to 7 meters in height. A resident of the city claims she saw the man and it then vanished into thin air. Another woman claims she saw the man point a finger at her, causing her total paralysis.

Date: March 2005 Time: afternoon

Residents of a few towns on the Caspian shores in Iran and Azerbaijan say they have seen an amphibious man, he was reported to be swimming amidst huge shoals of fish. Rumor has it that the waters where he swam were becoming sparkling clear. Recently eyewitnesses onboard the Azeri trawler, "Baku" reported seeing the creature. According to Gafar Gasanof the captain of the trawler, the creature was swimming in a parallel course near the boat for a long time. At first they thought it was a large fish, but then they spotted hair on its head and his fins looked very unusual. And incredibly the front part of his body was equipped with arms. Shortly after this report was published in an Iranian newspaper, numerous readers came forward describing their own sightings. The readers pointed out that numerous fishermen had repeatedly seen the strange creature at sea and on the shore after seabed volcanoes in the area of Babolsera became active in February and offshore oil production operations intensified in the Caspian. All the eyewitness accounts provide a similar description of the marine humanoid. His height is about 165cm to 168cm, it has a protruding stomach, his feet are pinniped and he has four webbed fingers on either of his hands. His skin is pale white in color. The hair on his head looks black and green. His arms and legs are shorter and heavier than those of a medium-build person. Apart from his fingernails, he has nails growing on the tip of his aquiline nose that resembles a dolphin's beak. There is no information as to his ears. His eyes are large and orbicular. The mouth of the creature is fairly large, his upper jaw is protruding and his lower lip flows smoothly into the neck, his chin is missing. Iranians have dubbed the creature, "Runan-shah" or "Master of the seas and rivers". Other stories report that the waters remain crystal clear for days in the area where the creature has been spotted. Fishermen report that the fish that are caught in their nets seem to sense the creature when it approaches and produce a barely audible gurgling sound. It is said that the creature answers the call of the catch by making similar throaty sounds. According to a theory the creature is not alone and that there is a family of underwater humans, who are on a mission....to tackle environmental problems in the Caspian. The reproduction of flora and fauna in the Caspian has significantly deteriorated due to a surge in offshore oil production operations and underwater volcanic activity. The Astrakhan fishermen have long complained about the decrease in the stock of sturgeon.

A local man, Arkady G. was returning home from his job. The weather was good with crisp and clear skies. Suddenly a strong wind began blowing; the weather began to change suddenly as if a thunderstorm was approaching. Arkady expected heavy rain to fall. Suddenly a bright beam of light blinded him, still thinking that it was a swift change of the spring weather he looked up to the sky and to his surprise he saw 5 or 6 bright wide beams of light. The beams of light didn't appear to be from the Sun, as it was totally absent from the sky. Arkady stopped and began to look at the sky attentively. Suddenly the wind became calmer and the clouds moved away and at this point he saw a strange object hovering beyond the clouds. Thinking he was seeing things he attempted to walk away but he turned around and the object was still there. It was a metallic circular craft with distinct contours. Arkady found it difficult to estimate the object's size since the distance was hard to measure. His feelings were strange and unexplainable, but he felt no fear. He could not say how long he remained there just looking at the UFO which began to descend and then hovered silently some distance from the ground. Soon a large beam of light descended from the center of the object, the beam was bright but bearable to look at. Then he saw several moving shadows or figures inside of the beam, but could not see any specific details. The beam then suddenly vanished and the UFO began to slowly ascend upward. Arkady kept looking at the UFO until it became a small dot in the dark sky. When he returned home he realized that he had been apparently watching the UFO for more than an hour, he could not remember anything else.

The witness was standing out on the steps of his house smoking a cigarette when he suddenly had the impulse to look up in the sky. Recently he had read about reports of people who had seen a UFO and decided to attempt telepathic contact. He looked up and saw what he thought was a UFO and was able to make telepathic contact. He asked if they were there and they said, "Yes". Recently he had been having horrible nightmares and decided to ask them if they were the cause and they said yes. He asked them why they had been giving him the nightmares. The reason they gave him was that he meant something special to them. He then asked them to please stop scaring him that he was deathly afraid of them. They said that they couldn't stop because he was not born here, on earth they meant (!). The witness asked what did they mean and they answered that they had created him and that he was one of their experiments. He then asked them if they were going to take them again and they said yes. The witness then told them to try "not to scare him to much". To which they replied "we will try". That same night they came for him and the witness was able to remember everything. He remembered the aliens coming through his bedroom door which was closed. He looked at his watch and it said 0330A. He screamed and started to cry. He described the beings as about 3 or 4 ft tall, with slit for mouths, egg-shaped large heads, with large almond shaped eyes with pupils that resembled those of a cat. They were very thin and had very long fingers, which he counted five on each hand. There were a total of four humanoids. They told him not to be afraid. But the witness was becoming hysterical and was telling the humanoids to go away, while he screamed uncontrollably. They then stared at him and he began to calm down a bit but was still crying. Still sobbing, they led him into what appeared to be a small scout vessel shaped like a croissant, which had a large ramp about 10 ft long and 20 ft wide. He estimated the "scout ship" to have been about 20 to 27 ft long and about 13 to 18 ft high. They led him by the hand and as soon as he was inside he was strapped to a slab that looked like an uppercase "T" after that they disrobed him. All the while this was happening one of them told him that his name was Morrin. The aliens were speaking and all the witness heard was English, he thought they might have been using telepathy, but he still heard sounds coming out of their "mouths". The sounds were a mixture of grunts, shrieks, groans and one to scary to make out. Then when the ship docked with the mother ship he was rolled or felt like he was being rolled to their medical center, all the while he was still crying. Morrin told him that he was an experiment meant to advance their breeding program and that they had tried to adapt their hybrids to feel emotions but so far they had failed and that they just needed some insight into what they called human interaction and emotions. The witness then asked why he and they replied that they were still trying to find out. He then decided to tell them that if he was their "creation" how could they not know and they said that they were just "working for them and they were not told anything". The witness then asked who were "they", the humanoids then pointed to their left and when he looked, he saw what looked like a "Nordic" type being but it was much too thin and it had blood red colored hair. They then proceeded to take blood and sperm samples. After about four hours of mental interrogation as the witness felt being treated like a test subject he was returned home. He asked them to please never come back for him and they said "no".

Two witnesses driving along Highway number 35 some 30km south of Santa Rosa saw a beam or "tube of light" some 50 meters from the paved road surface. Unable to see the source of said light, they noticed that the "tube" was projected from a height of some 8 meters in the air down to the ground, without touching the surface. "It seemed suspended in mid-air". Faced with this circumstance, they slowed their vehicle, detecting that (inside the tube) it was possible to see two figures in apparent descent, one on top of the other, with their legs slightly raised. The witnesses add that the "tube" measured approximately 1 ½ meter wide, was entirely white in color, and allowed the witnesses to see that the beings wore silvery clothing, like astronaut type jumpsuits. They further noticed that the beings held their arms outstretched as though carrying some element in their hands while the rest of the arm was downward and slightly away from the body. Faced with the unexpected encounter and their subsequent feelings of fear, they chose to speed away from the sight, looking back to see that the "tube of light" remained in place as they pulled away from the area.

Three witnesses including one, William Nash, watched a sky-gray silver metallic object sitting on the desert for approximately 40 minutes. Several undescribed beings were milling around the object and appeared to be having some type of conference of some sort. After about 40 minutes the beings went back into the craft, which then lifted up slowly and then shot away at incredible speed. According to the Nash the beings appeared to have been "planning" something.

Tradesman Vanderlei Rodrigues dos Santos, 42, was driving on highway BR-158 when in need of gasoline, he stopped at a service station. When he left his car, Vanderlei was seized by aliens. He said that he first noticed a strange kind of ship hovering above the BR-158. It then drew closer and landed in an adjacent field. "At this moment I thought I was going to die" Rodrigues dos Santos said, "I thought of my wife, my sons and my family." Vanderlei is not certain how long he was held aboard the ship. He said he completely lost track of time. He said he was taken to a laboratory aboard the ship, where three aliens extracted skin, hair and blood samples from him. "They were three little humanoids", he said, "All had big heads and small, spindly torsos. I wanted nothing to do with them, but they brought me along into the ship. When I clearly saw the eyes of one alien they were as dark and as blank as they eyes of a newborn." Vanderlei said that it was about 0600A on Thursday March 31 2005 when the extraterrestrials put him off the ship. He found himself back on Earth but at a service station on the Avenida Presidente Vargas in Santa Maria dozens of kilometers from the location where he had left his car. He used the service station's telephone to call the police and report the abduction.

A woman reported lying in her bed one night when she received a message to wake up. When she did she could see a golden dome above her house which had red and blue lights on it. She also reported having numerous paranormal experiences including two near death experiences. One of these occurred when she was 11-years of age and was pushed into a pool. She couldn't swim and was drowning when she saw a funnel appear which contained her life. Her second NDE was at age 27 during childbirth. She had lost a great deal of blood and her heard had stopped. She floated out of her body and up to the ceiling where she could see the nurses wheeling in a machine to restart her heart. In her out of body state she could see her own blood and wondered whose it was. Although she tried to communicate with the staff nobody appeared to hear her as they didn't respond. She was proclaimed dead by the doctors and woke up to find a sheet pulled over her face and her father crying over her body.

Comment: It has become readily apparent in my mind that many paranormal experiences are directly link to the UFO phenomena. Or are we dealing here with so-called "Magic Technology" a technology so advanced and so beyond our comprehension that we (humans) can only come to term with it by calling it "magic".

One night after the rain had just stopped the witness looked out the window (the house backs up to a nature preserve and some farms); it was a little misty and still clear enough to see. He saw two globes of yellow light about 3 to 4 inches in height flying in the backyard. At first he thought that it was some kind of giant moth, but then this bright yellow orb flew about 4 feet from him on the outside of the screen. Within the globe he could see what looked like a small entity with a flowing long dress that was cut at certain angles. Although he could not make out a face because of the brightness, he was certain about the clothing. The other one was a little further away to the left. They flew for what seemed like a minute and then flew straight up and disappeared. He knows what he saw and is convinced that it wasn't a moth. The witness claims to have found what he terms as "fairy rings" in the woods.

He told her in the truck that he had seen "something that didn't appear to be human but was running upright." It appeared to be dark brown or black in color and looked to be covered in hair. 26-year old Andrey Alexandrovich Zabava was in the company of several friends from the town of Yalta and had gathered for a picnic in an area near the Izobilnenskoye water reservoir NW of the town of Alushta. Andrey then borrowed a UAZ-469 vehicle (Russian Jeep version) to drive several km to a location that he wanted to desperately visit. He drove north and turned right passing the village of Lavanda and then left to the Southern Mt. Demerdzhi area (1239m) before the village of Luchistoye. There the Jeep got stuck in some mud and muck and was unable to go on any further. By instinct he remembered the 1994 incident in the alien base known to be in the region and walked about 4-5km towards the northeast, first climbing the western slope of Mt. Demerdzhi and then down north and then up eastward to a cave on the Demerdzhi plateau about 2-3km east of Northern Demerdzhi. As was reported by a local UFO group (Terra group) there is a camouflaged alien navigational beacon somewhere inside Northern Mt Demerdzhi. The cave that Andrey was looking for was called the "ghost cave" that is visible only if its "owners" want anyone to visit or come inside. The cave is not on any map. Andrey knew nothing about the cave but was led by instinct. He entered the cave, which looked more like a grotto, the ceiling high enough for him to walk in. Inside a strange light from an invisible source illuminated the cave quite well. He saw stalactites and stalagmites growing both on the floor and the ceiling of the cave; he then came upon a small underground lake and then stumbled upon a protective and decontaminative field resembling the surface of a mirror, similar to vertical standing water from ceiling to ground. He touched it with his hand and he felt warmth. The "screen" then changed shape and he could see the outline of a human figure probably assisting him in "passing through" the shield. In a moment he walked through and felt his body become lighter and refreshed just like after taking a shower, and it was much more easy breath as well, the air apparently much cleaner than outside. He then found himself in a strange room, like a hall of "mirrors" which constantly changed in appearance, with strange doors changing shape and forming gateways of different shapes, rectangular, triangle, oval and circular revealing visible passageways and corridors beyond them. A tall humanoid entity was standing in the middle of the room; he was about 2-2.5m in height. The alien was obviously the same one Andrey had met in 1994; he wore a gray-whitish furred tight-fitting suit. The humanoid had 5-fingered hands. This time what appeared to be a transparent dashboard (or helmet screen) covered his face, especially the area around the eyes. Andrey understood it to be a special filter to protect the aliens' eyes from the bright sun light outside. Andrey couldn't yet understand if this alien was a living, totally intelligent creature or just a biological robot or cybernetic organism which was used as security for the alien base. They then entered into telepathic conversation and the alien said, "So you have found the way in!" Andrey could only answer, "Hello" (or Hi_) which the alien also did. They stood in the room and communicated for several minutes and Andrey asked about the fast changing corridors or doors he had previously seen, the alien answered that those were actually passageways to the base or station located about 300 meters away. Andrey thought that there must have been another cavern gateway to the base on the northern side. The alien reportedly told Andrey that they welcomed more visitors that it would be actually "beneficial" for them. Asked if it might hinder their activity or operations the humanoid replied, "Not at all, nobody would hinder them. We are all scientists here". After the conversation was over Andrey left the cave the same way that he had entered, and then descended down the curved pass on the rocky slope about 4-5 km to the road and managed to drive the Jeep away from the area. According to Andrey the battery of his electronic watch had completely melted. Several days later Andrey and Dr. Anton Anfalov (source) attempted to visit the location but were not successful. Apparently Andrey was not completely trusted, he remembered that during the telepathic conversation with the alien this one said the he was also originally not trusted and was now chief of security at the base.

A girlfriend and boyfriend were looking at the moon from their hot tub. A light mist was falling and rain showers would occasionally pass over. (The moon was bright and visible between the clouds). The boyfriend first noticed a strange light over the tree tops of his yard. They both went to investigate. What followed was 90 minutes of terror. At first they saw one light. It would rapidly change shapes and colors. At times beams of light would shoot out of the light towards the witnesses. The light would then become a telescope like device and move towards the witnesses. The light temporarily disappeared only to be followed by more light (eventually three). The woman in her terror tried to call her brother on her cell phone. While making the call the lights approached her and engulfed her in light. She described that the light went right through her. The predominant shape of the lights was that of a human eye and the witness said that they "looked alive". The colors ranged from blue to yellow and were predominantly red. Eventually the woman said that she dropped to her knees, prayed and closed her eyes for about 10 seconds. When she opened her eyes the lights were gone. She also said that the rain really poured when the lights were around. The rain abruptly stopped when the lights left. She was so upset by the experience that she didn't sleep at all that night. Her boyfriend was also quite terrified. They were both sober during the experience. Neither had seen a UFO before. No sound was heard during the entire event and no electrical interference was noted. No lighting or thunder was noted. She notified the police, but no investigation was carried out. She reported that her boyfriend's dog had been acting strange about an hour before the incident and was growling at something in the woods. And the witness thought that it had encountered a wild boar since it sustained some puncture marks on each side of its nose after going into the woods. An anonymous witness reported watching from a house in a wooded area a disc-shaped object about 24 ft in diameter which emitted an eerie purple and greenish glow as it hovered low over or within some tree limbs. The witness watched three humanoid figures moved down to the ground in an enclosed sphere of gray light. The three figures approached the screen porch where the witness was sitting. The figures were almost transparent in nature and had an orange cast that seemed to glow lighter and darker---almost as if they were communicating by using signals. They came right up to the screen and watched the witness for more than a minute. Soon a tall figure in a black type hooded cloth ducked under his door and came into his room. His dog Meg tried attacking it but instead it was pushed aside. He could see that the figure was extremely tall, with large black eyes, and long dangling arms with spiked hairy fingers. Somehow, resembling a tall skinny gorilla with a slumped walk. Instead of being afraid the witness came at it with his fists, and a struggle ensued. In the end somehow he was taken through the window and carried defenselessly across the farm and over the barbed wire. He passed out, and next woke up on a rotating wall-like object where he was strapped, they were putting something under his toenails and stabbed something into his penis. They also had some sort of "wire gun" that they shot behind his left ear where he now has a sort of lump, which he is going to see the doctor about. He looked to the side and saw his mate in the same position. He was still sleeping but they were taking bits of hair off him and he had some kind of object resembling an eggshell covering one ear. This event occurred in a very rural area of western Mercer County, in western Pennsylvania. The main witness, a 14-year old boy was visiting his friend on a farm and the two boys were taking an early morning walk through a field some distance behind the farm house. The weather was clear, sunny and hot. They had stopped momentarily to discuss their direction when the main witness noticed something stand up from the tall grass less than 25 ft from them. It was a humanoid-looking figure, 5foot 5inches tall. A dull white in color, no obvious clothing, a large head, no noticeable eyes, nose or mouth, described as gaunt and gangly looking. The main witness yelled at the second witness to look, and at that moment the humanoid began running on 2 legs toward some nearby woods. Its speed was unusually fast for a 2 legged creature. The woods were about 40 ft away, and when it reached them, it crouched down to go under a strand of barbed wire and lifted its hands to part the brush under the wire. The boys could see it attempting to hide behind some heavier brush and in doing so caused the brush to shake violently. They waited about 10 minutes, being very curious but also very afraid. They cautiously crept up to where the being had hidden, but found nothing. They searched around for a while but then began to feel very "creepy" so they went back to the house and obtained a .22 rifle and went for a further search of the woods. While searching the area they found peculiar footprints in the area where they had seen the being. The footprints were very difficult to describe according to the witness and the source. The night following the event the main witness had a very long, strange and vivid dream about the death of a close friend of his, which disturbed him. farm, the second witness older brother and his girlfriend were alone in the farmhouse. Both area bout 18 years of age and had been arguing when the girl walked out of the house into the backyard to calm down. She was a good distance from the house when a young deer (perhaps a fawn) walked out of the field towards her. It came so close to her that she could almost touch it. She watched the deer for about 10minutes and then went back inside the house. The argument started up again so the girl walked out of the house again and saw the young deer lying in the yard. It was badly clawed or cut, bloody and obviously dead. Terrified she ran back into the house, got her boyfriend and went back out very quickly only to find the deer was now gone. The grass in the lawn and the field was flattened as if a large animal had attacked the deer and dragged it away. There were footprints on the lawn, and the original 14year old witness seems to think they were similar to the footprints he had found at the time of his humanoid encounter.

Horacio Roquet left his apartment ready to go to work when something strange attracted his attention. The morning was clear and Horacio noticed a dark suspicious object just above the front building's roof--- not moving but static and looking like if it was floating. Horacio's first reaction was to go inside his home and grab his video-camera, so he ran inside shouting to his sister to come outside with him to see this bizarre thing over the building. Both of them went outside and the "thing" was still there, floating just a few feet above the front building's roof and Horacio's sister reacted by saying, "What is that?" Horacio immediately began taping the "thing" with his video camera. When Horacio applied the camera's zoom and got a closer look through the viewfinder he received a major surprise which left a profound impression on him. According to Roquet, "It looked like a human-shaped body, 'standing vertical and just floating over the roof. I was shocked. The figure was not facing me...I was looking straight at its right side. It was tall. No sound was heard and we both stood still, watching, while I continued recording." Then the dark body started moving to the right slowly, and rose several feet in the sky and then hovered again, completely still. Horacio kept recording all the time, even though he was very nervous and was attempting to control himself. After several minutes the dark figure moved again to the left, disappearing behind the building's roof. The sighting lasted about ten minutes. The video clearly shows that the figure was wearing a dark loose fitting outfit and had a red light around its waist.

After a long day the witness had gone outside to his covered driveway for a smoke and look at the night sky. The witness looked towards the north and thought about his recent (saucer) sighting wondering what it was all about. In the near distance, at no more than a couple of hundred feet he saw a faintly visible moving object that flitted from side to side. Whatever it was it reflected light from the streetlights. Its side to side movement was so quick initially he couldn't tell if it was one object or two. The object then zipped directly over his neighbor's house across the street. It continued to move side to side in a space of approximately 50 feet. It then stopped and the witness was able to observe it more clearly. The object was a humanoid with large eyes and wing-like appendages and was probably 2 to 3 feet in width. It remained still and he could see wavering reflections from its "wings". They were not beating like a bird, but showed shimmering reflections from the streetlights. The witness felt the hair on his head rise all the way down his back to his ankles. It appeared to be watching the witness as he smoked his cigarette. The witness felt threatened and then said out loud, "I see you!" Then the flying figure went from stationary to out of sight right over the witness head in an instant. He then came out from under his covered carport and turned to follow its movement. Immediately it zipped into view directly above his head, obviously studying the witness who could see really large and intensely dark "eyes". It seemed surprised by the witness looking right at it, it didn't like being seen. The witness apprehension rose even higher. The creature then turned away and disappeared like a shot. It had a birdlike shape, but was thicker. The witness insists that it wasn't a bird, bat or any familiar nocturnal creature and has never seen anything like that before.

The witness had been visiting her parents when one night she saw something strange from her bedroom window, it was a shadowy figure that didn't appear human or like any animal she had ever seen. Her first thought was that it could have been an alien, but since she had never seen an alien before she wasn't certain. Unfortunately she screamed for her father and it disappeared before she was able to figure out what it was. The witness points out that on June 15 2005 there was a sighting of a triangular shaped craft over Franktown, unknown if related to her encounter.

The witness was sitting in a field near his house when he saw a bright light in the sky which came closer and hovered overhead. The witness could now see that it was bright and saucer shaped. Soon a beam of light from the craft hit the ground and the light became brighter and brighter eventually becoming blinding. The witness was not able to see the craft any longer and blacked out. He woke up two hours later and the craft was gone.

Two 15-year old local students, Miss Ewelina W and Miss Ewelina F were sitting on the steps at the entrance to house # 50 on Mickiewicz Street when they suddenly noticed a thin dark human figure that was approaching in their direction very slowly. It was a man but both witnesses were unable to see any additional details. They watched as the figure came to fence gate entered the gate and then disappeared in plain sight. Terrified Ewelina F ran away to her home and Ewelina W called her mother on her cellphone---Mrs. Malgorzata W and asked for help. When she came to the scene she found her daughter in a state of shock. At home she told her mother what had transpired. The numerous dogs in the area and present remained calm during the encounter. The day before one of the girls had seen a mysterious light over the area and a circular depressed area was said to have been found on the ground at a location about 200m from the incident.

The witness and six other individuals where in Beaver Creek camping in the woods when two of the people in the group went for a short hike into the woods, they were gone for about 15 or 20 minutes when the rest of the group decided to go to bed for the night. No more than 5 minutes after they entered their tents 2 of them saw a hovering light just above the tent, which appeared to have a spot light on the tent. Shortly after that the two that went into the woods also saw the object hovering over the campsite. While they were headed back they saw something standing outside one of the tents looking in. The person inside was so frightened that she was unable to move or scream. Next a sort of vacuum seemed to envelope the campsite or as one witnesses said, "the being seemed to stop time" as the object hovered above the tent. All four occupants of the tent saw the creature walk by. But they looked out it was gone. The creature was very tall, at least six or seven ft tall and slender, with huge eyes that glowed red in the dark.
